

This year the Social Science Secondary Education (History) Program consisted of twelve students. In the Spring term all majors were assigned to Brian Mullgardt as advisor, and he met with each one to evaluate their progress and advise them in course selection. One student took and successfully completed the Illinois State 114 exam before beginning student teaching, and two others who had already passed the exam entered the field to

Term 3

ED 201 Human Development (3)

HI 203 U.S. History to 1865 (3)/IN 250 (3)

PS 130 Introduction to Psychology (3)

EC 100 Macroeconomics (3)

Possibly Intermediate Language, depending on placement by Language program (3)

18 Credits

---

Begin Prepping for Content Exam (see Dr. Mullgardt)

-----
Professional Development:

Attend Conference on IL History

Attend Phi Alpha Theta Meetings.

Term 4

ED 220 The Exceptional Child (3)

HI 204 U.S. History Since 1865 (3)

SO 100 Introduction to Sociology (3)

IN 251 (3)

Literature (3)

15 Credits

Term 5

Term 7 HI 320/40/60 (3) FINE ARTS (3) SO 120 Introduction to Anthropology (3) offered only odd numbered years OR HI 206 Cultural Geography (3) offered only even numbered years HI 425 Methods of Teaching History (3) ED 425 Instructional Design (1) HI 480 Historiography (3) 16 Credits <hr/>	Term 8 ED 478 Supervised Teaching (12) ED 488 Senior Seminar (3) 15 Credits <hr/> Take APT ----- Professional Development: Resume Finalized 2 Mock Interviews Judge National History Day Competition
Study for APT ----- Professional Development: Attend Conference on IL History Attend Phi Alpha Theta Meetings. Join National Council for the Social Studies	