

Horizontal bar chart showing two data series for the first row. The left bar is approximately 50% of the total length, and the right bar is approximately 50% of the total length.

Horizontal bar chart showing two data series for the second row. The left bar is approximately 50% of the total length, and the right bar is approximately 50% of the total length.

Horizontal bar chart showing two data series for the third row. The left bar is approximately 50% of the total length, and the right bar is approximately 50% of the total length.

Horizontal bar chart showing two data series for the fourth row. The left bar is approximately 50% of the total length, and the right bar is approximately 50% of the total length.

